Mervyn Silva stepped down in keeping with APSL tradition of rotating its office bearers to give new members the opportunity to play an active part within the Association.

Now you don't understand the testing protocol.

Two bright stars currently dominate the western sky low down after sunset — actually, the planets Jupiter and Venus.